

FCC,

I am deeply worried that Sinclair Broadcasting is using their consolidated media power to force their stations to air a radically bias and factually flawed documentary about Kerry only weeks from election. Please work to strengthen media ownership rules and encourage our free airways to reflect both sides of the debate.

Thanks,
Sarah Pearson